Synopsis

Egeus wants his daughter Hermia to marry Demetrius, who is in love with Hermia, but Hermia is in love with Lysander. She and Lysander plan to run away together, and Hermia tells her best friend Helena, who is in love with Demetrius, about their plan.

Meanwhile, Titania, queen of the fairies, and her husband Oberon are fighting. To get back at his wife, Oberon tasks his servant, Puck, with giving her a love potion, which will make her fall in love with the first person she sees.

In another part of the woods, some mechanics are putting on a play.
